

Chinook Salmon Scale Aging

April 2-3, 2014

Juneau, Alaska

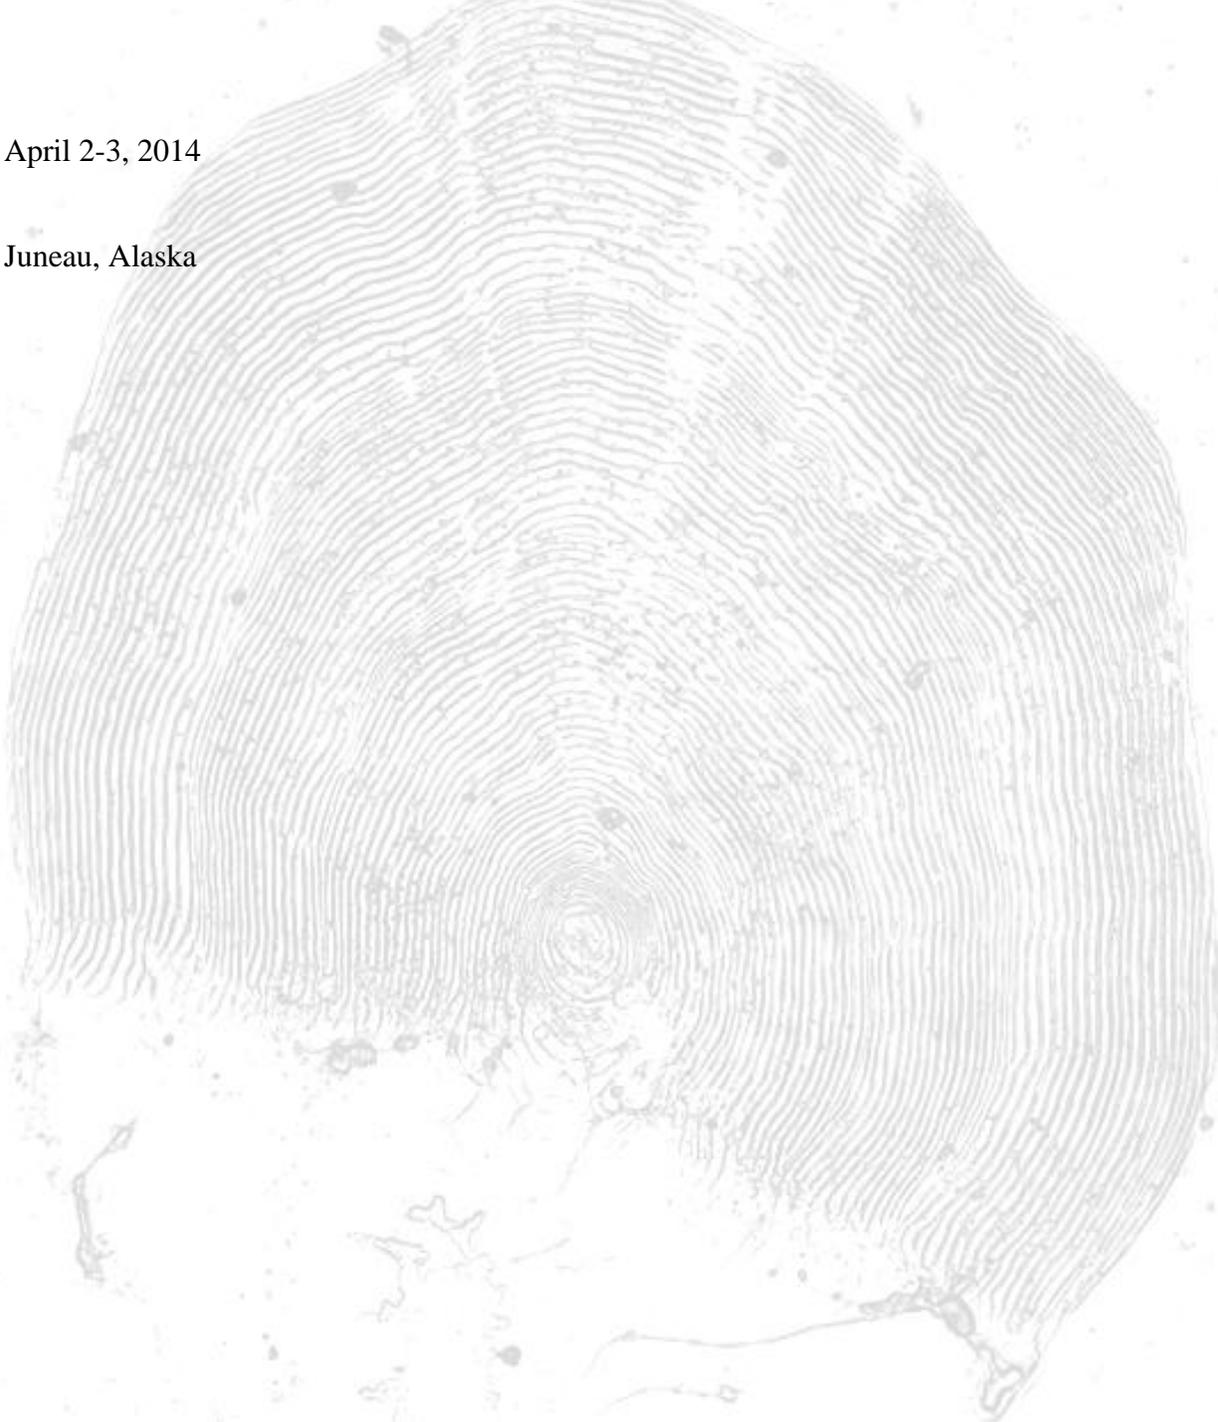

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Area Map	2
Workshop Goal.....	3
Schedule	3
Presentations.....	4
Participant contact information.....	5

WORKSHOP GOAL

The goal for this meeting is to bring together the primary Chinook salmon scale age readers from the Pacific Northwest to present their current methods and criteria for Chinook salmon scale aging, discuss similarities and differences among methods, and jointly develop standards and quality control protocols that can be applied to Chinook salmon scale aging in the Pacific Northwest.

SCHEDULE

Tentative

April 2, 2014

Morning

- Introductions
- Presentations on Chinook salmon aging from each region.

Afternoon

- Chinook salmon scale aging activity

April 3, 2014

Morning

- Activity results
- Discuss age common aging protocols, glossary

Afternoon

- Next steps in Chinook salmon aging

PRESENTATIONS

PARTICIPANT CONTACT INFORMATION

